

Worksheet 3: Black Power Mixtape 1967-1975

Name: _____ Date: _____

Black Power Mixtape—This film includes rare footage spanning nearly a decade highlighting the Black Power Movement’s key events and prominent leaders such as Angela Davis, Stokely Carmichael, and the Black Panther Party, as seen through the eyes of Swedish television journalists.

1. Who was Stokely Carmichael? What was his philosophy?
2. What was Martin Luther King Jr.’s new “militant” position right before his assassination? What was the significance of this position?
3. What was said to spark the declaration of war on Black America?
4. What was the general consensus in 1968 (according to the interviewees on the streets of New York)? Why?
5. What was the Black Panther Party? What was its philosophy?
6. What did the Black Panther Party model as solutions to address the conditions of the Black community?
7. What did J. Edgar Hoover determine as the most dangerous internal threat to the United States of America?
8. Who was Angela Davis?
9. Why was she an icon to the Black Power Movement?
10. What was her commentary on violence and (guns)?