

AMISTAD
RESEARCH CENTER

52ND
ANNIVERSARY
CELEBRATION:

Soundtrack of New Orleans
TELLING NEW ORLEANS' STORY THROUGH MUSIC
SEPTEMBER 28, 2018 | 6:30 P.M. | ORPHEUM THEATER

RONALD M. CARRERE, JR. is a native New Orleanian, graduate of the University of New Orleans with degrees in Business Administration and Finance specializing in Real Estate Finance. An alumnus of the Harvard Kennedy School Art and Practice of Leadership Development Program, Bryan Bell Metropolitan Leadership Forum, New Orleans Regional Leadership Institute, Loyola Institute of Politics and the Norman C. Francis Leadership Institute.

Currently employed by Liberty Bank & Trust Co., Ronald Carrere, Jr. serves as the Vice President of Development where he is a leader in both the Real Estate and Commercial Lending Divisions while also assisting with several community initiatives. Prior to entering the private sector, he spent seven years working for the City of New Orleans in both the Workforce Development and Economic Development departments.

He currently serves on the following boards: the Regional Planning Commission; Amistad Research Center Board; New Orleans Regional Leadership Institute Board (N.O.R.L.I.); New Orleans African American Museum Board; City Year New Orleans Advisory Board; Daughters of Charity Services of New Orleans Board; State of Louisiana Civil Service Commission; Nexus City (Member); and the Urban League of Louisiana Board (Secretary).

RONALD M. CARRERE, JR.
CHAIR

His previous service has included Dress for Success Board; treasurer for Einstein Charter School; VAYLA (Vietnamese American Young Leadership Association); New Orleans East Economic Development Board; Eastern New Orleans Neighborhood Advisory Commission; campaign manager for several political candidates (Retired); planning committee for the Norman C. Francis Leadership Institute and the transition teams of Mayor Mitchell Landrieu and Sheriff Marlin Gusman.